

QUALITY POLICY

American Offshore Services optimizes management, maintenance and innovation for service and solutions at sea. We have the most qualified personnel and the best-developed and customized vessels with the highest reliability in the market.

With a clear vision, commitment and customer requirements in focus all our employees are continuously working with improvements to maintain 100% quality compliance.

We work according to ISO 9001, this to manage and follow up activities with the objective to comply with legal requirements, have the highest possible customer satisfaction and to be the best at what we do.

American Offshore Services

James Clouse
Chief Executive Officer